

Case of the Month: September 2023 Bin 604 Wine + Spirits

Bubbles:

Lambrusco, Lunato NV (Italy) $11.99

This light, refreshing Lambrusco is just pure fun! Surprisingly refreshing, with just a touch of sweetness. Serve chilled, drink often.

White:

Macabeo, Collado 2021 (Spain) $10.99

Pale yellow color, with vibrant green hints. Elegant nose of tropical fruit and citrics. Fresh, balanced and long in the mouth.

Sauvignon Blanc, Line 39 2021 (California) $12.99

This crisp and zesty Sauvignon Blanc has classic citrus and grassy notes, on a fresh and light body. Deliciously easy to drink, there's a reason we can't keep this on the shelf!

Chardonnay, Line 39 2021 (California) $12.99

Medium bodied with light toast and a fresh finish. Expect orchard fruit flavors with hints of vanilla.

Verdejo, Camina 2022 (Spain) $11.99

Smooth, refreshing, and vibrant!! A fine example of one of Spain's native grapes. Flavors of lime, juicy melon, and hints of tropical fruit shine. The crisp clean finish will leave you wanting more!

Red:

Garnacha/Syrah, Collado 2021 (Spain) $10.99

Mouthwatering wild berry and black cherry intertwined with a little earth and black pepper on a silky texture. Pair with pizza, burgers and your favorite roast meats.

Blend, Line 39 2020 (California) $15.99

A blend of Petit Verdot, Petit Sirah, Merlot and Zinfandel, this wine is a great sipper for parties and dishes with lamb. Enjoy dark fruits with hints of baking spices.

Merlot, Glenbrook 2021 (California) $12.99

This friendly wine delivers rich aromas of dark plum, cola and sweet cherry. The palate is soft and packed with red and blue fruit, finishing with light oak spices.

Cabernet Sauvignon, Glenbrook 2020 (California) $12.99

The deep ruby red color with aromas of berries and cedar are the characteristics of this vintage varietal. It is a medium-bodied wine with just a hint of oak that is smooth, fruity and ready to drink. Pairs wonderfully with filet mignon, lamb, heavy pastas and cheeses.

Tempranillo, Camina 2022 (Spain) $10.99

A clean, bright and lovely wine with an attractive cherry red color. Red and black fruits such as raspberry, cherry and blackberry dominate the nose. Notes of almond and hazelnut are well-integrated throughout. Finishes fresh, round and well-structured.

Garnacha, Sabeo 2021 (Spain) $11.99

Whether you're winding down by the fireplace or just need a happy hour pick-me-up, this medium bodied Garnacha will have you covered. Seriously, it's delicious. Enjoy flavors of cocoa, espresso beans, a hint of tobacco spice, and ripe purple berries.

Barbera, Bricco dei Tati (Italy) $10.99

A bargain Piedmont that's also good? Go on... Deep cherry fruit harmonize with a touch of earth and a pinch of spice to produce a seriously over-achieving Barbera.
